

TWIG AND TWEET CHALLENGE

Help Survey Bromley's Bird and Tree Life!

As part of the International Year of Biodiversity, help record the variety and whereabouts of bird and tree species in the London Borough of Bromley.

THE LONDON BOROUGH

What do you need to do?

Sometime between May and August 2010...

- Get together a team or two or more people
- Set aside a hour to investigate bird and tree life at home, in your neighbourhood, at your place of work or in your local green space
- Note down what you discover on the reverse of this sheet or if you prefer use the on-line recording form at www.bromleybiodiversity.co.uk
- Hand in the sheet to staff at High Elms Country Park (01689 862 815), Crystal Palace Park Information Centre (020 8778 9496), Civic Centre Main Reception or your local library. Alternatively, post it to Bromley Countryside Service, High Elms Country Park Office, Shire Lane, Farnborough BR6 7JH.

For events and more information about biodiversity visit www.bromleybiodiversity.co.uk

You may need to use books or the internet to help you name the birds and trees you find. For queries on bird identification ring the numbers above or email Bromley RSPB (visit www.rspb.org.uk/groups/bromley).

Your findings will be combined with those of others and the results revealed at www.bromleybiodiversity.co.uk during September 2010. Awards will be given to the best teams!
